OF STREAMS ELEMENTARY LIBRARY

It's that time of year!

We're almost there! With the countdown now in the 20s, the end of the year is going to be coming quickly. This starts a crazy time in the library, but in a year of crazy times, I think it will be a welcome sign of normalcy. Check out the library's end of year events and important dates.

All books due to the library by June 1st!

Last Week for Book Checkout - May 10 - 15

Our last week for book checkout will be the week of May 10th. I will be visiting each class with the cart during this week and students will have their last chance to choose books during this visit. The week of May 10th will also be the last week for any book reserves placed in Destiny. All books are due back to the library by June 1st.

4th grade Bookmark Contest

The Streams Elementary 7th Annual Bookmark Contest has begun! All 4th grade students are invited to submit their creative work that reflects the theme "Together, we can do this." Submissions are due by the end of the day on May 7th. Voting by 3rd grade students starts May 10th. The winners will be announced on May 17th! Information and rules can be found on the Library's 4th grade Canvas site.

Beginning the week of May 3rd, first and second grade students will have the chance to vote for their favorite read alouds of 2021! There will be two surveys for students to complete (one the week of May 3rd, one the week of May 10th) and the countdown will begin on May 17th. Tune in to the first and second grade Canvas pages to see which books were the Top 21 of 2021!

What advice do you get from a librarian?

Answer: Believe in your shelf!!
