

COMMENDATIONS & RECOGNITIONS

April 2021

HIGH SCHOOL

Upper St. Clair High School students earned high honors in the recent Pennsylvania Mathematics League contest.

The following students were recognized as high scoring students in the commonwealth:

- Alex Sun, Freshman
- Christian Chiu, Senior
- Daniel J. Wang, Junior

Three Upper St. Clair High School, Juniors, have qualified for induction into the National Technical Honor Society (NTHS) at Parkway West Career & Technology Center:

- Ariana Braughler
- Tiffany Caskey
- Lia Cortolillo

Ten Upper St. Clair High School students recently earned Academic All-American awards from the National Speech & Debate Association.

Seniors:

Atharva Barve,
Antara Cleetus,
Reshma Gudla and
Sophia Shi

Juniors:

William Bacdayan,
Scott Cheung,
Saif Durrani,
Ammar Kethavath,
Rushikesh Kulkarni
Nitish Sharma

These students were honored for their academic rigor, competitive speech and debate success, and personal excellence.

FORT COUCH

A team of Fort Couch Middle School students placed first in the 6-8 grade division at the regional STEM Design Challenge on March 26, 2021 and now qualify to compete in the state-level competition. The STEM Design Challenge tasks teams of students in grades 4-8 with designing and building a prototype using recyclable materials or K'Nex pieces. The first-place team consists of the following Eighth Grade Students:

Carlee Santel

Tyler McClintock-Comeaux

Eitan Schwartz

Yuhong Shi

For the second consecutive year, Rohan Mehta, a Fort Couch Middle School eighth grader, has been crowned champion of the Western Pennsylvania Spelling Bee. He took top honors on Saturday, March 13, 2021.